THE DESTRUCTION OF KING SOLOMON’S TEMPLE

TISHA B'AV: THE 9TH OF AV, 586 BCE
THE BABYLONIAN EXILE: 604-539 BCE
INTRODUCTION

The Land of Israel is a natural bridge between the African and Eurasian continents, not only in terms of territory, but also between different peoples, cultures, languages and religions. It has been the focus of so much attention, the home of so many nations, and the stage for many events that have shaped world history. The Jewish people have called it their home for over 3,000 years. It is where they were born, matured and molded into a nation. This process was often challenging and involved several defining events, including the Babylonian Exile and the destruction of the First Temple in Jerusalem as, arguably, the most important of them all.

The profound effects of the Babylonian Exile were far-reaching: it transformed the Judeans into Jews, from one of many peoples into the People of the Book. 1,000 years later in 500 CE, they completed the Talmud, yet their 2,500 year sojourn in Babylon ended when they were deported from Iraq in 1951.
“How lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
She has become like a widow
Who was once great among the nations!
She who was a princess among the provinces
Has become a forced laborer!

She weeps bitterly in the night
And her tears are on her cheeks;
She has none to comfort her
Among all her lovers.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.

Judah has gone into exile…”

Lamentations 1:1-3

“In his days, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.”

2 Kings 24:1
“The first year of Nebuchadnezzar: In the month of Sivan he mustered his army and marched to Hattu (Syria-Land of Israel region). All the kings of Hattu came into his presence and he received their vast tribute. He marched to Ashkelon and in the month of Kislev he captured it, seized its king, plundered and sacked it.”
"At that time, the servants of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. And Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon came to the city, while his troops were besieging it. Thereupon King Jehoiachin of Judah along with his mother and his courtiers, commanders, and officers, surrendered to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign...

He exiled all of Jerusalem: all the commanders and all the warriors—ten thousand exiles—as well as all the craftsmen and smiths; only the poorest people in the land were left... And the king of Babylon appointed Mattaniah his uncle, king in his place changing his name to Zedekiah."

2 Kings 24:10-17
“The seventh year: In the month of Kislev (December 598) the king of Akkad mustered his army and marched to Hattu. He encamped against the City of Judah (i.e. Jerusalem) and on the second day of the month of Adar (March 597) he captured the city and seized the king. A king of his own choice he appointed in the city and taking the vast tribute he brought it into Babylon.”
“Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king’s mother, his wives, his officials and the prominent people of the land.”

2 Kings 24:15
List of rations allocated by the Babylonian royal court to exiles settled in Babylon.

“10 liters (of oil) to Jehoiachin, king of Judah, 2.5 liters for the 5 sons of the king of Judah...”
“Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.”

2 Kings 24:18
“Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people...

“This is what the Lord says: ‘This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.’ ”

Then the officials said to the king [Zedekiah], “This man should be put to death...”

Jeremiah 38:1-4
GEDALIAH SON OF PASHHUR
YEHUCHAL SON OF SHELEMIHAH
“Then they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchijah the king’s son, which was in the court of the guardhouse; and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water but only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.”

Jeremiah 38:6
“In the fourth year of King Jehoiakim...

Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the Lord had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.”

Jeremiah 36:1, 4
"From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the Lord’s temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll."

Jeremiah 36:10
“...when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the remaining cities of Judah, that is, Lachish and Azekah, for they alone remained as fortified cities among the cities of Judah.”

Jeremiah 34:7
“...we are watching the Lachish (fire-) signal according to the signs which my lord has given, because we do not see (the fire-signal from) Azekah.”
Now on the tenth day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, who was in the service of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. He burned the house of the LORD, the king’s house and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every large house he burned with fire.
