Zionists Crowd Swiss Town For 22nd World Congress

To twice the expected 3,000 visitors, the 22nd World Congress of the Zionist Organization opened in Lucerne, Switzerland, yesterday. The American 24yard platform with the latest in Jewish news from every part of the globe.

New Director at Opinion Research

An American professor of law, Dr. Richard H. Hildreth, has been appointed director of the new Research Bureau of the Opinion Research Foundation, Inc., New York City.

Mt. Zion Has an Old Tradition

What is the oldest tradition in Israel? It is probably the tradition of Mt. Zion, according to Dr. Joseph R. Strickland, executive vice-president of the American Jewish Congress, who is on a trip through the country.

U.S. Alotted 48 Rhodes Scholarships

The Rhodes scholarships, which are offered to American students, have been allotted by the University of Oxford to 48 students from the United States.

The transport Knesset Israel (above), jammed with 3,000 Jews en route from Hanover, Germany, last week, was the first of three ships that left Hanover for Eretz Israel. The second ship, also packed with Jews, left the port the same day, and the third ship, which will leave today, is expected to carry about 1,000 Jews.

Military counter-insurgency forces were on hand to protect the Jews as they walked in the cafes and restaurants of the town. The Jewish leaders are hoping that the Jews will be able to live in peace and security in the new country.
