Palestine Truce Plan
Bernadotte Sets Friday Deadline for Cease-Fire, Demands Decision Today

By the Associated Press

LAKE SHORE, Mich., June 8—The United Nations announced today that the Jews and Arabs had been given until 7 a.m. EST (5 a.m. PDT) tomorrow to accept or reject a cease-fire in Palestine.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N. mediator, notified Secretary General Trygve Lie this morning that the cease-fire was planned for 7 a.m. EST (11 a.m. PDT), and that he expected a decision from the Arabs and Jews by that time.

Berdaroffd told the Jewish and Arab leaders that if the plan was rejected or if acceptance was conditional, he would hold no further consultations.

The plan would be referred to the Security Council.

IMMIGRATION ISSUE

Immigration officials of the United States and Canada said today that the immigration issue was one of the most important of the cease-fire terms disclosed by Bernadotte.

While no one would attempt to argue that immigration was the key to an immediate cease-fire, the representatives of both nations agreed that the issue would be a crucial one in the future.

Signaling the growing importance of immigration, the representatives of both nations said that they would not accept any plan that would lead to an exodus of Jews or Arabs from their respective countries.
