PALESTINIAN TROOPS IN ENGLAND.

Units of the Palestinian Auxiliary Military Pioneer Corps are now stationed in this country. The Palestinian A.M.P.C., which is now a fighting unit, is composed of both Arabs and Jews, who have sunk their differences in the present fight against Nazi tyranny. They were the last troops to leave St. Malo after having fought a covering action during the evacuation of British troops from France.
