

Jewish-Arab Truce Effected by Lowell Officer

LOWELL, June 29—Maj George Maliszewski, 34, United States Army, of 275 High st., has been credited with bringing about the truce between Jews and Arabs in the Biblical vale of Ajalon in Palestine to permit mutual harvesting according to word received by his family.

The agreement which permitted the resumption of food supplies to both sides was signed in his presence by Arab and Israeli military representatives.

MAJ GEORGE M. MALISZEWSKI

Maliszewski, son of Charles and Frances Maliszewski, 275 High st., Lowell, graduated from the military academy at West Point in 1937. He attended the St. Stanislaus Parochial School and graduated from Lowell High School.

During World War II he served in Alaska and the Aleutians and for the past three years had been stationed in Germany in command of a military police outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Maliszewski have not heard directly from their son since he was assigned to the mission in Isreal.