Marine Falcon Young Travelers In After a Rough Atlantic Crossing on the Marine Falcon Jewish Aid Society Docks, Delayed 2 Days by Gales

Ten Passengers Injured in Falls During One Night; 16 War Brides on Board

Ten passengers on the Marine Falcon were treated for injuries in falls during one night as the ship tossed in fifty-mile-an-hour Atlantic gales that delayed the steamer's crossing by two days, it was learned as the ship docked here yesterday.

Most seriously hurt was Miss Mary Sullivan, seventeen, of Mary Sullivan, seventeen, of County Cork, Eire, whose left arm was fractured and forehead cut in the ship's pitching during the night of Dec. 13, the roughest period Miss Sullivan arrived to visit riod. Miss Sullivan arrived to visit an aunt, Mrs. Anna Flanagan, 48
Bay State Avenue, Somerville,
Mass. Miss Sullivan is to receive further treatment in a hospital before continuing to New England, a ship's officer said.

Dr. Lamar C. Oyster, surgeon of the ship, which docked at 9:50 a. m. at Pier 97, Hudson River and Fifty-seventh Street, said that at least nine other passengers had suffered injuries warranting medical treatment. The ship, from Southampton and Cobh, was to have docked Friday, but westerly gales and heavy seas prevailed throughout the voyage, Captain Harry Hansen, the ship's master, said. Speed was at times reduced to four or five knots, instead of the usual seventeen, and the average speed was twelve knots, he said.

Sixteen war brides and their twelve children, most of them from from England, were among the 616 passengers on the Marine Falcon. Among the brides was Mrs. Audrey Ryan, twenty-four, formerly of Cambridge, England, with her nine-year-old twins, Mark and John. They were going to Minneapolis, Minn. to rejoin John P. Ryan, a former private in England with the 8th Air Force.

Samuel A. Telsey, president of the H. I. A. S. Council, reported that the society faces a deficit of $780,000 because of post-war expansion of its activities, this despite the collection during 1947 of $2,000,000, which Isaac L. Asofky, executive director, said was the largest collection in its sixty hree years.

Mr. Telsey declared that "the problem of the Jewish homeless, the stateless, the persecuted and the unwanted will not be solved even if all of the Jewish D. P.s. were moved to Palestine.

"Immigration into Palestine must obviously be selective in the beginning," he said. "Not all who
