

Egyptians in Bethlehem 'Are Shelled by Israelis

JERUSALEM, July 13 (AP).— Jewish guns last night shelled Bethlehem. They were trying to silence Egyptian Army guns which had been raking southern Jerusalem from there, the Israeli Army announced.

An Israeli spokesman said enemy Arab forces are established in a former British police billet and on the height of old Bethlehem, overlooking the ancient gray stone building erected over the manger where Jesus Christ was born.