

All photographs by Ruth Gruber, special correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune

The blue and white flags of Israel flying proudly over Tel Aviv during the observance of Nation Day on July 27 when the new state paraded its armed might before 120,000 civilians