MOBS ATTACK GANDHI'S FOES ALL OVER INDIA

Members of Extremist Hindu Groups Are Beaten
and Stoned.

POLICE ROUND UP SCORES

Many Accused of Distributing Candy to Celebrate Death of the Mahatma.

New Delhi, Feb. 3 (A. P.).—All over India today members of Mahasabha and the R. S. S.—militant Hindu groups that bitterly opposed the peace policy of the late Mohandas K. Gandhi—were attacked by mobs enraged over Gandhi's assassination. While large numbers were being arrested for questioning, others were beaten and stoned.

Meanwhile groups shouting anti-Mahasabha slogans were marching toward New Delhi, and inside the capital the Government mobilized heavy military reinforcements in case of trouble.

Mahasabha—literally the Great Organization—is a nationwide political body organized in this century as a retort to the formation of the Moslem League. It seeks an India run exclusively by Hindu laws, with no protection of Moslem rights at the expense of Hindus. The R. S. S.—Rastriya Swayam Sevaysangh—is another militant group with similar beliefs. Both maintain youth organizations which they call "volunteers," but which others call private armies. The Government of Prime Minister Nehru yesterday outlawed private armies and all organizations that preach violence and hatred.

Hindu Conspiracy Seen.

The police have said that Gandhi's alleged assassin, arraigned under the name of Narayan Vinayak Gadse of Poona, is a member of Mahasabha. Nehru has indicated that Gandhi was slain because he stood in the way of a conspiracy to impose Hindu rule on India.

Violence against Hindu extremists today continued to spread. News dispatches said that 135 R. S. S. members and six Mahasabha men were arrested at Nagpur and Cawnpore following rioting. The Mahasabha leader in the United Provinces was reported arrested at Gorakhpur. A dispatch from Kerala said the Mahasabha branch there had been dissolved. Fires were set in Baroda Ahmedabad was placed under curfew, and in Lucknow the police said that persons who distributed sweets to "rejoice" over the Mahatma's death have been arrested.

Meanwhile today it was announced that Gandhi's ashes will be committed to the rivers at Allahabad on February 12. A casting of the stars showed that date to be the most propitious, it was stated. The scattering will be at the confluence of the Ganges, the Jumna and the Saraswati rivers, to Hindus the most sacred spot in all India.

Baby Burned to Death in Bed.

Watertown, N. Y., Feb. 3 (A. P.).—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thompson of nearby Dexter put a vapor lamp in the bed of their two-month-old son last night to help combat his croup. The blankets caught fire and the boy, Gerrod, was burned fatally.

photographic prints on rayon satin Glendale's revolutionary fabric magic first at McCreery in Manhattan

4.98 yd. 39" wide

It's the most exciting fabric news in years—the Photone process which photographs print-patterns right on the material itself. The result is stunning—for the camera's eye catches every small and exquisite detail and achieves an unbelievably beautiful third-dimensional aspect. And the rayon satin, due to the sensitizing process it undergoes, takes on a softer and more supple feel—and a more subtle gleam. You'll see it in fabulously priced dresses and housecoats—but you can have yours at small cost! We've several patterns—ready for your needle and imagination—at a mere 4.98 a yard. Come in and see it on display tomorrow—lace print, feather print and others—all in photographic monotonies on black, wine or brown.
