

Above

28. Detail from an aerial photograph taken on 25 August 1944, of the railway sidings, or 'ramp' at Birkenau. The photograph also shows Crematorium II, with its entrance gate open, Crematorium III, and the underground undressing rooms, and the largely underground gas chambers, of both crematoria.

Left

29. Hungarian Jewish children on arrival at Birkenau.

Opposite top

30. SS men 'select' Hungarian Jews on the ramp at Birkenau. To the left, able-bodied men who are to be sent to the barracks; to the right, old people, women and children, who will be marched in a few moments from the ramp to the nearby gas chamber.

Opposite bottom

31. The group of old people seen sitting by the cattle truck in the foreground of the above picture.

Auschwitz and the Allies

Martin Gilbert

An Owl Book

Henry Holt and Company
New York

Henry Holt and Company, Inc.
Publishers since 1866
115 West 18th Street
New York, New York 10011

Henry Holt® is a registered trademark of Henry Holt and Company, Inc.

Copyright © 1981 by Martin Gilbert
All rights reserved.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data
Gilbert, Martin.

Auschwitz and the Allies.

Includes bibliographical references and index.

1. Holocaust, Jewish (1939-1945). 2. World War, 1939-1945--Jews.

3. Oswiecim (Concentration camp) I. Title.

D810.J4G5 940.53'161 80-28911

ISBN 0-8050-1462-4 (An Owl Book: pbk.)

Henry Holt books are available for special promotions and premiums.
For details contact: Director, Special Markets.

First published in hardcover by
Holt, Rinehart and Winston in 1981.
First Owl Book Edition—1982

Designed by Rainbird Publishing Group Ltd
Printed in the United States of America