

WATCHING THE BATTLE—Along King George avenue in Jerusalem, a wall was built during the battle for the city, to protect Jews who had to walk through the street. Through slits in the wall, passersby

—AP Wirephoto.
paused to watch the course of the fighting. This picture, showing the wall and the watchers, was taken May 17 and delayed by the turmoil in the Holy Land.